HISTORY

- 1880: Beginning foundation with area settlers forming a visible Gospel Church initially Eden Baptist Church
- 1885: Railroad growth in the area, the church was moved to Milton and renamed as Milton Baptist Church
- 1910: Growth in the church allowed the structure that stands today to be built and dedicated. The 40" bell was purchased and hung, today resides outside on a brick stand to still be safely rung.
- 1989 – 1994: Expansion of the church to include fellowship hall and new kitchen.
- 2004: Updates to interior of sanctuary and fellowship hall
- 2007: Addition to the church that included classrooms, additional restrooms and office.
- 2015: Oak trees were planted in remembrance of our "Tall Oaks of Righteousness" members
- 2019-2020: Storage shed purchased, additional electrical wiring, water line and concrete work completed
- 2020: Celebration of 140 years in faithful service!
