

Open Half-Time Pastor Position

Good's Mennonite Church, a congregation located west of Elizabethtown, PA, is looking for a half-time pastor.

We are a small Lancaster Mennonite Conference-affiliated congregation which is located in the rolling farmland of northwest Lancaster County. We have a rich history of community and international service and also of church planting in our area. We celebrated our 200th anniversary as a congregation a few years ago and are excited about what the future may hold. We have about 30 persons in attendance on Sunday mornings and a church body that is a mix of persons who grew up in the congregation and those who have joined as adults. We are passionate about deepening our spiritual lives, growing in numbers and faith, and reaching out to the community more effectively. We have a couple ministries in the community we are actively involved in, and we are exploring more.

Might you be a person who is interested in pastoral ministry? You need not be experienced. We are looking for someone with a sense of call, the ability to relate well to persons inside and outside the church, and the personal qualities necessary for servant leadership. We expect to have a variety of resources available to assist our new pastor with mentoring and other supports, which we can talk about at the appropriate time.

Salary and benefits would be commensurate with the guidelines of Lancaster Mennonite Conference.

If you are someone who might be ready to take this step, we invite you to be in touch.
