

Job Description

Director of Student Ministries

Job Commitment: Beginning part-time (20-25 hours/week with the anticipation of working toward full-time employment as ministry grows).

Description:

Salem Church, located in Chambersburg, PA, is currently looking for a part-time Student Ministries Director to lead the rebuilding of our ministry to middle and high school students and work with the lead pastor to coordinate our children's ministry. The ideal candidate will likely be someone currently pursuing a degree or training in vocational Student Ministry who will benefit from a part-time opportunity which coincides with their calling to church leadership. It is our desire to find someone who would desire to see this mature into a full-time position following their matriculation.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Personal

- * Be diligent and disciplined to maintain a life of devotion to the study of God's Word, fellowship, worship, outreach and prayer.
- * Maintain relationships both inside and outside of Salem which display integrity, grace and proper, Biblical conflict management.
- * Be as intentional as possible to avoid situations which could appear to be lacking in sexual or relational fidelity.
- * Be fully in agreement with our congregational/denominational beliefs as expressed on our website, www.salemub.org/beliefs

Ministry

- * Be responsible for leading a discipling ministry among Salem's High School and Junior High students which focuses on helping students to mature into faithful followers of Jesus, striving to grow in character and devotion to God as image-bearers of Christ.
- * Work with lead pastor to help create a holistic, Biblically-based discipling curriculum designed to help guide children and students through a lifelong commitment to God.
- * Work with current volunteer staff and develop new volunteers to participate in children's and student ministries.

Please contact lead pastor, Chris Moore, at chris@salemub.org or 717-263-4123 for more information.