Seeking an energetic and innovative family and youth-oriented person who has a passion to attract and equip followers of Jesus Christ as a full-time Associate Pastor. This individual will partner with the Senior Pastor in shepherding a 300-member congregation, leading discipleship and outreach programs and assisting in overseeing daily ministry operations. The ideal candidate has or is working on a seminary degree that includes some Wesleyan studies, has strong teaching and preaching skills and a heart for pastoral care. The position includes a competitive salary, housing allowance and business reimbursable amount which is negotiable based on experience and education. If interested or desiring more information, contact Pastor Chris Harrison of Athens First Methodist Church at pastorchris@firstathens.org or (903) 675-5161.