Job Title: Events and Ministry Coordinator (Multiple Locations & Flexible Opportunities)
Employment Type: Full-Time, Part-Time, Volunteer Opportunities

Job Description:

Are you passionate about building community and making a meaningful impact where you live? Apartment Life (AL) is looking for Coordinators to serve in apartment communities across the country.

Events and Ministry Coordinators get to create and provide an excellent Apartment Life (AL) experience to residents and staff in an apartment community! Coordinators are passionate about the vision and mission of AL and combine this passion with skill to plan consistently excellent and irresistible events, provide exceptional personal communication, and offer acts of genuine care and radical hospitality for those in their scope of service- ultimately impacting the community and the lives of apartment residents.

We are seeking mission-minded, highly relational, and responsible coordinators who enjoy meeting new people, planning social activities, and helping people experience God's unconditional love. Coordinators get to partake in doing "business as a ministry" by faithfully weaving together excellence in business with loving their neighbors well.

What You'll Do:

- Plan and host consistent, engaging community events
- Build relationships with residents and property staff
- Provide care, support, and hospitality to those in your community
- Serve as a positive and encouraging presence within the apartment community

Who We're Looking For:

- Individuals or couples who enjoy connecting with others
- Organized, proactive, and relational
- Passionate about serving and building community
- Able to manage responsibilities with consistency and excellence

What You'll Receive:

- Reduced/complimentary housing or hourly compensation (varies by community and opportunity)
- Training and ongoing support from Apartment Life
- A meaningful opportunity to impact lives and build community
